Age: K-3rd grade Still present on several booklists for children of divorced parents, Dinosaurs Divorce is a classic didactic walk-through of the many stages of divorce including why parents divorce, having two homes, and stepparents (the latter is not often discussed in children's books about divorce). This book is best at providing a positive outlook on an otherwise gloomy situation, and discussing several potential situations with levity and hope.

Dinosaurs Divorce is not a substitute for talking with your child about your divorce. Instead, you should use it as a conversation starter. The book encourages children to be patient and resilient with the changes to their families, including how to adjust to their parent's new partners and the step and half-siblings that may come with them.
