Hans Belting, Florence and Baghdad: Renaissance Art and ...

" In Florence and Baghdad: Renaissance Art and Arab Science, Belting makes a compelling case that the vision of the Renaissance—a vision that still holds us today—began not in Florence, but in Baghdad, with important implications for both cultures... Reproducing the complexity of Belting's argument here seems like 'playing God,' too, in capturing the majesty of his examples and endless connections (all wonderfully translated from the original German by Deborah Lucas Schneider).
