For beginning riders of all ages, participating in games on horseback helps develop skills and calms the fears associated with sitting on the back of a 1,100-lb. moving animal. Equestrians learn how to control the horse and stay in the saddle without falling while focusing on a short-term, just-for-fun activity.

Fun Horseback Games for Beginners / Our Pastimes

It is one of those games which helps amateurs in developing eye contact and body language. It helps in controlling the horse and keeping the beast calm. Polo is another game, but it is played by professionals. Steer Wrestling. This is an absolutely wacky version of bull fighting. The rider here mounts the horse and chases a bull.
