The Complete Stories of Truman Capote Quotes Showing 1-30 of 31. "He'd always been willing to confess his faults, for, by admitting them, it was as if he made them no longer exist." - Truman Capote, The Complete Stories of Truman Capote. tags: 1947 , o-henry-memorial , shut-a-final-door.

The Complete Stories of Truman Capote Quotes by Truman Capote

I had watched Truman Capote on the television talk-shows in my teens. Preconceived notions as to what to expect in his writings. As I read this collection of short stories, I was drawn towards a genius at work. His writing is so insightful. It is as if Truman, the young man, and Truman, the celebrity, were two far distanced people.
