The Hundred Languages of Children: The Reggio Emilia ...

The Hundred Languages of Children. At Reggio Kids children use their “hundred languages” to work through experiences and projects. These languages are symbolic and include drawing, sculpting, dramatic play, writing, and painting etc. They are used to represent children’s thinking and theories around a topic or an encounter with a learning experience.

The Hundred Languages of Children: The Reggio Emilia ...

The Hundred Languages are described as being expressive, communicative, symbolic, cognitive, ethical, metaphorical, logical, imaginative and relational. Although verbal language is recognised as being very important, particularly in negotiating, Reggio educators believe that many educational systems restrict children to the verbal/linguist means of communication.
